Tar Heel Reader (PC)

www.tarheelreader.org

A free collection of easy to read and accessible books
Search for books written by students and educators
Write your own books and publish them on the site
Speech enabled and access using multiple interfaces

Steps:
- Search for Book
- Select book and choose to have read silent or read to student with a child, male or female computer voice
- Choose access method for student (mouse, switch, alternative keyboards, touch screens, or AAC devices)
- Read book
- Rate book or read another

Create a Favorites link for students to use that allows you to monitor books read by students

Write your own book:
- Write your own book with easy to follow steps
- Register with the website on the Register Page to start

Tar Heel Reader to PowerPoint (Setup)
By exporting a book from Tar Heel reader to PowerPoint will give you a format that will enable you to print out the book to laminate and bind. You can also put your own audio to the book

Picture Assisted Literacy
        Pix Writer
        Picture IT
        Boardmaker Symbolate

Resource Center at the Anne Carlsen Center